Guide

Application

You must submit an application for a licence to hold local pool betting events to the Danish Gambling Authority, which is the authority that can grant the licence. See Danish Executive Order no. 1121 of 1 December 2011 on the Danish Gambling Authority (Bekendtgørelse om Spillemyndigheden).

Pool betting refers to betting where all or parts of the winnings depend on the size of the total pool of bets placed.

Terms and conditions

A licence to provide and organise local pool betting events can only be granted to companies etc. that arrange track cycling racing, dog racing on racetrack and pigeon racing and that are affiliated to the central organisation or federation of the sport in question.

A licence to provide and organise local pool betting on horse racing on racetrack can only be granted to associations that have had a licence for local pool betting for a number of years.

Natural persons cannot be granted a licence to provide and arrange local pool betting.

The Danish Gambling Authority may grant a licence to provide and arrange local pool betting to companies that meet the conditions in items 2-5, and where members of the Executive Board and the Board of Directors meet the conditions in items 1-5, which are stated below.

Persons aged 21 years or older can obtain a licence to provide and arrange gambling products and services if they:

1. are not under guardianship or limited guardianship
2. have not filed for reorganisation, bankruptcy, liquidation or debt rescheduling
3. are not under reorganisation, in bankruptcy or liquidation or undergoing debt rescheduling
4. have not been convicted of a criminal offence that entails a risk that they will abuse the access to offer gambling products and services
5. do not have outstanding debt to public authorities.

A debt is not regarded as overdue if a payment plan has been entered into with the debt collection authority or full collateral has been provided for the debt.

The applicant must be able to run the business in a fully sound manner.

Item 1 Applicant

The applicant's name, address and CVR number must be entered on the form.

The applicant must also provide a telephone number, alternative telephone number and any email address.

Item 2 Corporate form

Tick the corporate form under which the applicant's business is operated.

All partners in a partnership must sign the form.

All members of the Executive Board and Board of Directors of a company must sign the application.

Companies, associations and foundations must attach a transcript from the Danish Business Authority.

If an association is not registered with the Danish Business Authority, a copy of the association's statutes must be attached.

Item 3 Date of commencement

Here you must enter the date from which you want the licence to apply.

You must apply well in advance of the desired date of commencement, as the Danish Gambling Authority must consult the police during the processing of the application.

Item 4 Type of race

You must enter the type of race to which the licence will apply.

Item 5 Number

You must enter the number of race days per year that you want to be covered by the licence.

Item 6 Venue

You must enter the address at which the races will be held.

You must enter whether the application is for a new licence or a renewal of an existing licence.

If you already have a licence for the venue in question, you must quote the Danish Gambling Authority's reference number.

Item 7 Information about applicant

The Danish Gambling Authority wants to receive information about whether the applicant, members of the Executive Board and members of the Board of Directors of a company or an association meet the requirements set out in section 26 of the Gambling Act.

If a member of the Executive Board or the Board of Directors ticks one of the yes fields, the member's civil registration number must be entered.

Item 8 Applicant's declaration and signature

The information will be checked by the Danish Gambling Authority when we process the application.

If the application concerns a company, an association or a foundation, all members of the Executive Board and all members of the Board of Directors must sign the application to confirm that the information provided is correct and complete.

Item 9 Appendices

You must enter which appendices you have attached to the application.

Guide – continued

If you have or have previously had a licence to hold local pool betting, please feel free to attach a copy.

What are personal data?

Personal data are any type of information that can be directly or indirectly attributed to an identifiable natural person. This may, for example, be data such as name, address, civil registration (CPR) number and financial circumstances.

Personal data can also be information about businesses, for example in case of sole proprietorships or shareholders in a company.

Processing of personal data means any handling of personal data. Typical types of processing include: collection, registration, systematisation, storage, disclosure, correlation and erasure.

What personal data does the Danish Gambling Authority process about you?

We process data about your name, your contact details, data about potential criminal offences, occupational matters and data about your financial circumstances.

Where do the personal data come from?

The Danish Gambling Authority processes personal data that you have yourself submitted to the Danish Gambling Authority in connection with your application.

In addition, we process data about you that we have received from other private individuals, businesses and public authorities.

There is CCTV surveillance at the addresses of the Ministry of Taxation's departments.

Purposes and lawfulness of our processing of personal data

The Danish Gambling Authority processes personal data about individuals and businesses submitted for the processing of an application for a licence to offer games of chance.

The Danish Gambling Authority processes personal data as part of the tasks for which we are responsible as a public authority. The processing of general personal data is based on Article 6(1)(e) of the General Data Protection Regulation.

If we process data about criminal offences, such data are processed as a necessary part of the performance of a task carried out in the public interest and the exercise of official authority vested in us, and the processing of the data is consequently based on section 8(1) and (2) para (3) of the Danish Data Protection Act (Databeskyttelsesloven).

Recipients or categories of recipients

The Danish Gambling Authority often discloses personal data to our data processors and other public authorities as part of our general performance of tasks. It may follow from legislation that the Danish Gambling Authority has a duty of disclosure. For example, data are disclosed to the Danish Tax Agency (Skattestyrelsen), the police, the courts and other relevant authorities.

Disclosure to recipients in third countries, including international organisations

The Danish Gambling Authority rarely discloses personal data to recipients outside the EU and EEA.

Storage of personal data

We store personal data for as long as necessary to process your application. In this connection, we attach importance to the complexity of the application when determining how long the data will be stored.

Automated decisions, including profiling

The Danish Gambling Authority does not use automated decisions, including profiling.

Your rights

You have a number of rights when the Danish Gambling Authority processes personal data about you. You can read more about these rights below. If you wish to exercise your rights, please contact us.

Right to notification

You have the right to be notified when the Danish Gambling Authority collects and processes personal data about you. This includes a right to be notified of the purpose and lawfulness of the processing.

The Danish Gambling Authority may be exempt from its obligation to notify you in certain situations. This will apply, for example, if you are already familiar with the information, or your interest in receiving the information should be overridden by the consideration of private or public interests.

Right of access

As a general rule, you have a right of access concerning the Danish Gambling Authority's processing of your personal data. This means that you have the right to obtain confirmation that personal data about you are processed as well as various additional information.

Right to rectification (correction):

Processing of your personal data – continued

You have the right to rectification of any inaccurate data about you.

Right to erasure

In special cases, you have the right to have data about you erased before the time at which it would normally be erased by us.

Right to restriction of processing

In some cases, you have the right to have the processing of your personal data restricted. If you have a right to have our processing restricted, this means that, in future, we may only process the data – with the exception of storage – with your consent, or for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims or for the protection of the rights of another natural or legal person or for reasons of important public interest.

Right to object

In certain cases, you have the right to object to our otherwise lawful processing of your personal data.

Right to transmit data (data portability)

In certain cases, you have the right to receive your personal data in a structured, commonly used and machine-readable format and to transmit those data from one data controller to another without hindrance.

Storage and erasure

The data that the Danish Gambling Authority collects and processes about you will be processed and stored in the Danish Gambling Authority's IT systems.

We erase your personal data when they no longer serve a valid purpose. The specific date of erasure depends on for how long the data must be stored to fulfil the purpose for which they were collected.

You can read more about your rights at the website of the Danish Data Protection Agency (Datatilsynet): <https://datatilsynet.dk/english/privacy-policy>

Complaint to the Danish Data Protection Agency

You have the right to file a complaint with the Danish Data Protection Agency if you are dissatisfied with the way in which the Danish Gambling Authority processes your personal data.

The Danish Data Protection Agency is the central independent authority that supervises compliance with the rules in privacy law. You can find the contact details of the Danish Data Protection Agency at datatilsynet.dk/english/contact-us.
