Guide

The personal declaration must be completed by

- individuals (sole proprietorship)
- partner in a partnership
- member of the Executive Board in the applicant's company
- member of the Board of Directors in the applicant's company
- representative appointed in Denmark
- beneficial owner
- anyone requested to do so by the Danish Gambling Authority.

The personal declaration must be submitted to the Danish Gambling Authority with relevant documentation attached.

General requirements

In order to issue a licence, the Danish Gambling Authority must, among other aspects, investigate whether persons with a co-determining influence have been convicted of a criminal offence that creates an obvious risk of abuse of the access to provide betting and online casino. Furthermore, it is investigated whether they have shown such behaviour that there is reason to assume that the day-to-day operations will not be managed in a fully sound manner, see section 29 of the Danish Gambling Act (Spilleloven).

General requirements for submission of form to the Danish Gambling Authority

You must send the completed form using the Bluewhale system to ensure that the information is not intercepted or read by others.

You can send messages via Bluewhale by providing an email address and mobile phone number to an employee of the Danish Gambling Authority. The employee can then start the communication by sending you a Bluewhale message to which you can reply.

Read more about Bluewhale at the Danish Gambling Authority's website.

Item 1 Name and address

You must enter your position, your name and address, phone number and any email.

You must also enter how long you have lived in Denmark.

You must attach a criminal record obtained from a public authority in your country of residence. The criminal record must not have been issued more than six months before the date of application.

Item 2 Identity data

You must enter your gender, nationality, date of birth and possibly your civil registration number.

If you do not have a Danish civil registration number, you must enter your driving licence number or passport number, when it has been issued, by which authority and in which country.

If you do not have a valid passport, you can attach a copy of other photo ID such as a driving licence, health card or similar.

Item 3 Information about birthplace

Based on a specific assessment, a copy of passports from all countries in with dual citizenship will need to be submitted.

You must provide details about your place of birth, city/town, country and nationality at birth.

Item 4 Name change

You must enter if you have been known under another name or if you have changed your name.

You must enter your previous name and when you changed your name.

Item 5 Previous places of residence

You must enter if you have lived in another country than that stated in item 1 within the past ten years. You must also enter the periods. If you have lived in another country, you must attach a criminal record for each country of residence in the past ten years (five years if the application concerns renewal of a licence). The criminal record must not have been issued more than six months before the date of application.

Item 6 Licences

If you have or have previously held a gambling licence or an approval for a gambling-related position in Denmark or another country, you must attach a copy of the licence.

If you have not held a licence yourself but have worked for a company that has held a licence, you can answer no, but you must instead answer yes in item 8. If, for example, you have been approved as a manager of a gaming hall, you must answer yes.

Item 7 Occupational experience

If you have previously worked with gambling, please enter the name of the business and the issuing country. If you know the name of the issuing authority, this can also be entered.

Item 8 Rejection

If you have received a rejection from a public authority of an application for a gambling licence or of an approval for a gambling-related position, you must enter details of the circumstances in this connection.

If you have received a rejection, you must attach a copy of the rejection. If you do not have the decision, you must provide information about the authority responsible.

Item 9 Revocations

If you have had a licence or approval as mentioned in item 7 revoked, you must provide details of the circumstances in this connection.

You must attach a copy of the revocation. If you do not have the revocation, you must provide information about the authority responsible.

Guide continued

Item 10 Criminal offences

If you have been convicted of a criminal offence or if you have reached an out-of-court settlement for a criminal offence in Denmark or abroad, this must be entered. You must state the reason for the judgement or settlement and attach a copy of the decision.

If the material is very extensive, an adequate summary may be sufficient.

If you have been charged or are under investigation for a criminal offence by the police in Denmark or abroad, this must be entered. You must state the reason for the charge or investigation.

Please note that violations of special acts generally do not appear on criminal records. You must therefore also provide information about these.

Item 11 Investigation by public authority

If you have been the object of an investigation by another public authority in Denmark or abroad in connection with a gambling licence, you must enter this.

You must state when the investigation started, the investigating authority, the type of game and any reference number.

You must also provide details of the circumstances surrounding the investigation.

Item 12 Disqualification of rights

If you have been disqualified of rights in connection with occupational or commercial activities, you must enter the period of disqualification and the reason for the disqualification. If you have been placed under bankruptcy quarantine or been subject to a non-competition clause in connection with occupational or commercial activities, you must enter the period.

Item 13 Reorganisation – bankruptcy – debt rescheduling – liquidation – compulsory dissolution

If a petition has been filed for, or if you or a company to which you are affiliated are under, reorganisation, bankruptcy, debt rescheduling, liquidation or compulsory dissolution in Denmark or abroad, you must enter the date for this and details of the circumstances.

If your spouse or cohabiting partner has filed for reorganisation, bankruptcy or debt rescheduling, you must also provide information about this as well as the date for this and details of the circumstances.

Item 14 Debt

You must attach a declaration from public authorities in the countries in which you have lived in the past five years, regardless of whether you have debt. The declaration may have been issued for a time during your stay in this country. For the current country of residence, declarations must generally not have been issued more than six months before the date of application.

If you have outstanding debt to public authorities in Denmark and/or abroad, this must be entered. You must state the total amount of outstanding debt to public authorities.

If you cannot obtain such a declaration from public authorities, you must forward documentation of this.

A debt is not regarded as overdue if a payment plan has been entered into with the debt collection authority or full collateral has been provided for the debt.

Item 15 Other information for use in the case processing

If there is other information that the Danish Gambling Authority would reasonably expect to be made aware of, you must enter it here.

Item 16 Declaration and signature

The information will be checked by the Danish Gambling Authority in connection with the processing of the application.

By signing the document, the applicant declares that the information provided is correct and complete.

You can submit the form via borger.dk or e-boks using your MitID. Alternatively, you can sign it by hand and send it via the Danish Gambling Authority's contact form at spillemyndigheden.dk under 'Contact'.

Item 17 Appendices that must be attached

The specified appendices must always be attached to the annex.

- Criminal record or similar documents from the country/countries in which you have lived within the past ten years, only five years if the application concerns renewal of a licence.
- Declaration of debt from public authorities in the country/countries in which you have lived in the past five years.
- List of employments for the past ten years with statement of job title, only five years if the application concerns renewal of a licence.

Criminal records and declarations may have been issued for a time during your stay in the country in question. For the current country of residence, records and declarations must not have been issued more than six months before the date of application.

Item 18 Appendices that must be attached if the circumstances require this

The specified appendices must be attached to the declaration if applicable.

- Rejection of licence application
- Revocation of licence
- Judgement or out-of-court settlement
- Other

The Danish Gambling Authority may require the submission of additional information.

What are personal data?

Personal data are any type of information that can be directly or indirectly attributed to an identifiable natural person. This may, for example, be data such as name, address, civil registration (CPR) number and financial circumstances.

Personal data can also be information about businesses, for example in case of sole proprietorships or shareholders in a company.

Processing of personal data means any handling of personal data. Typical types of processing include: collection, registration, systematisation, storage, disclosure, correlation and erasure.

What personal data does the Danish Gambling Authority process about you?

We process data about your name, your contact details, data about potential criminal offences, occupational matters and data about your financial circumstances.

Where do the personal data come from?

The Danish Gambling Authority processes personal data that you have yourself submitted to the Danish Gambling Authority in connection with your application.

In addition, we process data about you that we have received from other private individuals, businesses and public authorities.

There is CCTV surveillance at the addresses of the Ministry of Taxation's departments.

Purposes and lawfulness of our processing of personal data

The Danish Gambling Authority processes personal data about individuals and businesses submitted for the processing of an application for a licence to offer games of chance.

The Danish Gambling Authority processes personal data as part of the tasks for which we are responsible as a public authority. The processing of general personal data is based on Article 6(1)(e) of the General Data Protection Regulation.

If we process data about criminal offences, such data are processed as a necessary part of the performance of a task carried out in the public interest and the exercise of official authority vested in us, and the processing of the data is consequently based on section 8(1) and (2) para (3) of the Danish Data Protection Act (Databeskyttelsesloven).

Recipients or categories of recipients

The Danish Gambling Authority often discloses personal data to our data processors and other public authorities as part of our general performance of tasks. It may follow from legislation that the Danish Gambling Authority has a disclosure obligation. For example, data are disclosed to the Danish Tax Agency (Skattestyrelsen), the police, the courts and other relevant authorities.

Disclosure to recipients in third countries, including international organisations

The Danish Gambling Authority rarely discloses personal data to recipients outside the EU and EEA.

Storage of personal data

We store personal data for as long as necessary to process your application. In this connection, we attach importance to the complexity of the application when determining how long the data will be stored.

Automated decisions, including profiling

The Danish Gambling Authority does not use automated decisions, including profiling.

Your rights

You have a number of rights when the Danish Gambling Authority processes personal data about you. You can read more about these rights below. If you wish to exercise your rights, please contact us.

Right to notification

You have the right to be notified when the Danish Gambling Authority collects and processes personal data about you. This includes a right to be notified of the purpose and lawfulness of the processing.

The Danish Gambling Authority may be exempt from its obligation to notify you in certain situations. This will apply, for example, if you are already familiar with the information, or your interest in receiving the information should be overridden by the consideration of private or public interests.

Right of access

As a general rule, you have a right of access concerning the Danish Gambling Authority's processing of your personal data. This means that you have the right to obtain confirmation that personal data about you are processed as well as various additional information.

Processing of your personal data continued

Right to rectification (correction)

You have the right to rectification of any inaccurate data about you.

Right to erasure

In special cases, you have the right to have data about you erased before the time at which it would normally be erased by us.

Right to restriction of processing

In some cases, you have the right to have the processing of your personal data restricted. If you have a right to have our processing restricted, this means that, in future, we may only process the data – with the exception of storage – with your consent, or for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims or for the protection of the rights of another natural or legal person or for reasons of important public interest.

Right to object

In certain cases, you have the right to object to our otherwise lawful processing of your personal data.

Right to transmit data (data portability)

In certain cases, you have the right to receive your personal data in a structured, commonly used and machine-readable format and to transmit those data from one data controller to another without hindrance.

Storage and erasure

The data that the Danish Gambling Authority collects and processes about you will be processed and stored in the Danish Gambling Authority's IT systems.

We erase your personal data when they no longer serve a valid purpose. The specific date of erasure depends on for how long the data must be stored to fulfil the purpose for which they were collected.

You can read more about your rights at the website of the Danish Data Protection Agency (Datatilsynet):

<https://datatilsynet.dk/english/privacy-policy>

Complaint to the Danish Data Protection Agency

You have the right to file a complaint with the Danish Data Protection Agency if you are dissatisfied with the way in which the Danish Gambling Authority processes your personal data.

The Danish Data Protection Agency is the central independent authority that supervises compliance with the rules in privacy law. You can find the contact details of the Danish Data Protection Agency at datatilsynet.dk/english/contact-us.
